

NEON RAVEN ART GALLERY

22

53 Corbiere Rd., M'Chigeeng

Ann Beam an award-winning, contemporary artist, uses her imagination as a tool to take her forward to pull out of spirit a unique synthesis of who she is and what she can envision. Inspired! "The heart of the Art"

OJIBWE CULTURAL FOUNDATION

23

Hwy 551 M'Chigeeng (Admission fee charged. Sunday 12:00pm - 4:00pm)

The facility includes an accredited museum and art gallery that features the talents of local and regional artists. It has played an integral role towards the revitalization of First Nations' culture.

Randy C. Trudeau is an Odawa artist from Wikwemikong who was first inspired to paint by Francis Kagige's illustrations for Tales of Nokomis by Patronella Johnston. His lyrical artistic style is distinguished by tonal form lines in four parallel bands of colour.

Mike Cywink is another featured artist.

PERIVALE GALLERY

24

1320 Perivale Rd East

Come visit this beautiful gallery featuring Ivan Wheale, David Read, Judith Martin, Rochelle Neal, Len Harfield and several off-island artists.

Ivan Wheale works in oils and watercolours. His subjects range from travels across Canada. His favourite areas are the regions of the North Channel. His works can be seen at Artists on Elgin in Sudbury and at Odon Wagner Contemporary in Toronto.

PERIWINKLE STUDIO

25

940 Monument Rd., Spring Bay

Rochelle Neal uses vibrant watercolours to capture the patterns and texture of nature and rustic items which reflect life on Manitoulin. Her studio is nestled in the woods on the west shore of Lake Mindemoya, and provides a unique creative environment for her artistic endeavours.

PHEASANT'S ORIGINAL ARTS

26

33 Hills Trail, Wikwemikong

This studio is located in the home of Mary' Maanihns' Pheasant, a self-taught Odawa artist who has been recognized in many exhibitions. Featured with her will be the work of Dolly Peltier, Robert Pheasant, Carlene Pheasant, James Jacko and other local artists. Drumming and singing featured at 2:00 pm daily.

RAVENSEYRIE STUDIO

27

41 Water St., Gore Bay (open 11:00am - 5:00pm)

Ravensyrie Studio features the work of Lynne Gerard, a painter, writer, and calligrapher. She specializes in hanging scrolls, greeting cards, framed and unframed paintings as well as "cave art" style rock paintings.

The designs for the wearable textile art that Erin-Blythe Reddie creates are inspired by the joy of living in Manitoulin's bountiful space, full of Nature's life. Her pieces are worked in natural fibres intended to appeal to your senses.

RUE STUDIO

28

100 Townline Rd., Sheguiandah

Owner Ruta Tribinevicius runs this multi-faceted fine arts studio, currently equipped with a stone lithography printing press and screen printing facilities. Eventually the space will offer residence to artists from around the world, where they can come to work and then show their final prints in the on-site gallery.

SOUTH BAY GALLERY AND GUEST HOUSE

29

15 Given Rd., South Baymouth (10:00 am - 6:00 pm)

This gallery offers cherished work by skilled hands of over 90 artists in pottery, painting, jewellery, quilts and garments, native quill and bark baskets. Local artists include: Jack Whyte, James Simon, Randy Trudeau, James Jacko, Mary and Robert Pheasant, Duncan Pheasant, Leland Bell, Ann Anong and Carl Beam, Dylan Whyte, Susan Morton, Bruno Henry and Christine Williston.

TIMBERLANE RUSTIC LODGES

30

249 Mill Rd., Big Lake (off Silver Bay Rd.)

Petra Wall has been painting with watercolours for 27 years. Pen and ink drawings as well as pencil sketches have also been favourites. In 1995 rock carving and photography were initiated but Wall has primarily enjoyed the spontaneity and the subtle nature of watercolours.

Robert L. Hunt has been an avid photographer in Canada and world-wide since age thirteen. He is a member of the Hamilton Camera Club and "print-chair holder" of many honourable mentions. Rob is a winner of the Canada-wide Lions Gate Award.

TURNERS OF LITTLE CURRENT

31

17 Water St E. Little Current (Sunday 11:00am - 3:00pm)

Upstairs at Turners experience one of Canada's oldest family businesses, serving residents and visitors of Manitoulin for over 130 years. You will find art work by Jon Butler, Marilees Schoenfeld, Debra Lynn Ireland, Brian and Brenda Chapman, Casey Still, Sue Lampinen, Bill Whittaker, Peter Bering and many more. You will also find Inuit carvings, sculptures, Native quill work and a gift shop.

Jon Butler strives to capture internal feelings and the external harmony of the natural world in LaCloche. The limited series analog photographs and haiku, collected privately and corporately, reflect decades of meditation on light and shadows. www.lacloche.ca

Peter Bering's drawings, paintings and prints exude an energy, optimism and joy for life. He finds Manitoulin Island inspirational for many of his hundreds of pieces in circulation in Canada, U.S. and Europe.

SARAH WARBURTON

32

15 Rocky Mountain Way (off North Channel Dr.), Little Current

Sarah Warburton is a photographer who has lived on Manitoulin Island with her husband and 2 children for over 10 years. She welcomes you to her garden and home to see photo cards, prints and framed images of the flowers, waters and landscapes of Manitoulin and elsewhere.

For more information please call 705-377-7515 or email mfaa@manitoulinart.com.

Manitoulin Art Tour Map

EXHIBIT LOCATIONS
 Fri, Sat & Sun 11:00 am - 4:00 pm

1 Anchor Inn	15 Xenia Merez	26 Pheasant's Original Arts
2 Leland Bell	16 M&R Jewellery	27 Ravensyrie Studio
3 Blue Jay Creek and Art Farm	17 (Penny) Gloria McMullen	28 Rue Studio
4 Burn's Wharf	18 Marcus Mohr	29 South Bay Gallery and Guest House
5 Camp Mary Anne Resort	19 Don Moorcroft	30 Timberlane Rustic Lodges
6 Brenda and Brian Chapman	20 My OL'Blues	31 Turners of Little Current
7 Edwards Studios & Art Gallery	21 Needle Box	32 Sarah Warburton
8 4elements Living Arts and Judith Martin Studio	22 Neon Raven Art Gallery
9 Gordon's Park	23 Ojibwe Cultural Foundation
10 Hettmann Studio	24 Perivale Gallery
11 Mira Jones	25 Periwinkle Studio
12 LynsArt Studio
13 Lou Lachance
14 Shelley LaFortune

Manitoulin Art Tour

OVER 60 ARTISTS IN 32 LOCATIONS THROUGHOUT MANITOULIN ISLAND.

July 17, 18, and 19, 2009
 11 am to 4 pm

WWW.MANITOULINART.COM

Welcome to the 15th Anniversary of the Manitoulin Art Tour

Take a scenic drive and meet the many talented artists you will find along the way.

ANCHOR INN 1
1 Water St., Little Current

A full service Inn offering very reasonable accommodation rates, fun bar, patio, free high speed internet, conference room and a renovated busy restaurant. We offer hand cut steaks, BBQ Chipotle ribs, Manitoulin fish and locally grown produce.

Marcie Breit's paintings reflect the beauty that is so pervasive in the Northern Ontario landscape. Inspired by the scenic diversity in areas such as Fielding Park, Manitoulin Island and the North Channel, Marcie often incorporates various aspects of these locations in her work. Marcie works with watercolour, acrylics and pastels.

LELAND BELL 2
206 Eskibok Rd., Wikwemikong

Leland Bell is an Anishnabe artist from Wikwemikong. He has been painting for over 30 years. He also composes and produces music. Leland opened an art gallery in Wikwemikong 4 years ago and is now operating full time in the summer months from June to October.

BLUE JAY CREEK AND ART FARM 3
379 Hwy 542 Tehkummah (11:00am - 7:00pm)

Come visit this outdoor art gallery (with weather-proof zones) adjacent to an outdoor vegetable and fruit stand.

Marc Brzustowski- A prolific Canadian landscape and cityscape painter will be an honoured artist with his first show of 20 to 30 Manitoulin landscapes, all new works. These will be set amongst the nature-based creations and installations of Blue Jay Creek Art Farmer Serena Marrone.

BURN'S WHARF 4
Manitowaning Waterfront

Peter Baumgarten states that photography is the art of catching light and shadow at just the right moment. He has been trying to catch those moments since he got his first camera. His main focus has been landscape and macro photography, with some digital experimentation thrown in. Visit his website at www.creativeisland.ca

CAMP MARY ANNE RESORT 5
193 Camp Mary Anne Rd., Mindemoya

This resort is located on a quiet picturesque point on Lake Manitou. The cottages are nestled under stately maples and pines. One can relax and enjoy excellent lake views and spectacular sunrises.

Fay Reid is an artist from Scotland and she paints what she knows and loves. Come and see her Scottish landscapes and seascapes. She paints primarily in watercolours.

BRENDA AND BRIAN CHAPMAN 6
78 Meredith St., Little Current

Brenda Chapman paints local landscapes, floral and figures in watercolour. She endeavours to express her view of Manitoulin in her work displayed at home and in Turner's gallery.

Brian Chapman works in watercolour, line and wash, oil, acrylic and coloured pencil. He interprets local boating scenes and landscapes and enjoys portraits of jazz musicians.

EDWARDS STUDIOS AND ART GALLERY 7
454 Newburn Rd., Kagawong

Richard Edwards works from Edwards Studios & Art Gallery located in the historical Old Mill on Manitoulin's North Channel. His work belongs to many private and corporate collections throughout North America and Europe. You are welcome to view his landscape paintings and original serigraphs which convey the beauty of Northern Ontario.

4ELEMENTS LIVING ARTS AND JUDITH MARTIN STUDIO 8
12 Water St., Units 200 and 203 Little Current

Also showing here are Christine Williston and jewellery maker Sophie Pheasant.

Sophie Anne Edwards is an award-winning visual artist and writer supported by the Ontario Arts Council. Sophie's recent work integrates historical and geographical/geological elements into palette-knife acrylic paintings using text and photographs. Original paintings, reproductions and cards will be available. www.sophieanneedwards.blogspot.com

John Knox has been photographing nature and the environment for over 30 years. His stunning images take you on a journey around the world. "John is a visual poet. His photographs are consistently evocative; rich with metaphor". 77jkphoto@personainternet.com

Judith Martin's mixed media art has been exhibited internationally and is included in the Canada Council Art Bank. Her thought provoking yet tender paintings and quilts demonstrate her concern for the environment and the inner self.

Andy Smith- A graduate of the Haliburton School of Fine Arts Pottery program and a potter for 15 years, Andy is interested in forms and colour inspired by the natural world. Selections this year will include mugs, plates, and other high quality vessels. www.islandclayworks.ca

Heather Thoma is inspired by seeing how weaving integrates function and beauty. She creates scarves and tapestries on looms made from Manitoulin maple and often weaves with wools from the Island. Making the time to do creative work and discovering how the patterns and colours reveal themselves is a joy.

GORDON'S PARK 9
18777 Hwy 6, Tehkummah

Terry Gordon, proprietor of Gordon's Park Eco Resort, recently discovered his passion for painting with acrylics. He is surprised by the beauty of nature that surrounds him and loves to paint northern lights, full moons, monarch butterflies, apple blossoms, sunsets, winter scenes, landscapes and more.

URSULA HETTMANN 10
3 Dominion Bay Rd., Spring Bay

Ursula Hettmann was born in Germany and started an apprenticeship before she moved to Canada. The solitude of Dominion Bay influences her life and her work. She opens her studio in the summer to show what she created during the quiet winter months.

MIRA JONES 11
800 Townline Rd., Sheguiandah

Mira Jones recently graduated from high school and grew up on Manitoulin but now lives in Toronto. Her art is a wide variety of textiles, acrylic on canvas, found objects and photography of everything from nature to urban decay and unusual people.

LYNSART STUDIO 12
4909B HWY 542, Mindemoya

Linda Williamson has been painting professionally for 15 years. She has been in several juried shows throughout Northern Ontario. Linda works mainly in oils and will be exhibiting landscape and portrait images.

Known for her portraits, Moira Elsley loves the luminosity of watercolour and the myriad colours in Manitoulin rock. Moira's work has been accepted into the NOAA, La Cloche and other juried exhibitions and honoured, receiving Best of Show, Best Watercolour, People's Choice and Honourable Mention awards.

Lynda FR James is a well known potter. Great art won't match the couch, but an amazing casserole will speak to the roasted asparagus. Stoneware and porcelain pottery in colours of the rainbow.... For fun and function.

Ellen Lewis says that figure drawing continues to be a strong interest for her. Experimenting in a wide variety of media has provided Ellen with an artistic expansion after doing classical florals and landscapes. Ellen has been in many juried shows.

Nancy McDermid will be exhibiting oil and acrylic paintings. Her work interprets nature, travel experiences and social themes.

Leslie Morin has been painting for close to 10 years. Her medium is acrylics and she strives to capture the beauty of the flowers, birds and natural landscapes of Manitoulin.

LOU LACHANCE 13
323 Tracy Rd., Spring Bay

Lou Lachance has always had a desire to paint in oils but was busy doing other things so, as he states "here he is." He started painting in 2008 and hopes to keep at it. You can visit him in his home.

SHELLEY LAFORTUNE 14
5A Limit St., Sheguiandah

Shelley Lafortune is an enthusiastic digital photographer who has been capturing and presenting the beauty of Manitoulin Island for eight years. Shelley offers her photographs through various media - matted and framed, art cards, calendars on cloth, tile, stone, metal and glass and through her photobooks.

XENIA MERESZ 15
8 Fraser Rd., Kagawong

Xenia Meresz, a new resident to Manitoulin Island, is a worker in the health care field. Her love of semiprecious stones has brought out her creativity. Visit her home to see her wonderful variety of necklaces made from these stones.

M&R JEWELLERY 16
37A Meredith St., Gore Bay (Closed Sunday July 19th)

Retail jewellery and giftware can be found here as well as a display of the watercolours of artist Laura Landers.

Laura Landers' art is both colourful and whimsical. Her Slices of Manitoulin series has been very well received over the years, along with fresh works including landscapes, farm scenes and florals.

(PENNY) GLORIA MCMULLEN 17
57 Howe St., Manitowaning

Gloria McMullen states that Manitoulin Island gives her a great inspiration to paint again. She loves painting the landscape and florals while enjoying the tranquility. Her fun project of "Rock Art" enables family participation in subject and matter.

MARCUS MOHR 18
17A Silverbay Rd., Big Lake

Marcus Mohr is a self-taught local artist. His work includes sculpture, oil and acrylic paintings. Subject matter covers nature and portraiture. His website is www.marcusmohr.net

Leslie Moody was born and raised on Manitoulin Island, and is a recent member to the MFAA. She has spent the last year in Sudbury. She works with acrylic on canvas.

DON MOORCROFT 19
365 Strawberry Point Rd., RRI Gore Bay

Don Moorcroft finds inspiration for his photography in both nature and urban landscape, particularly with reflections from water and glass. His distinctive photographs have appeared in several juried exhibitions and have garnered a number of awards.

MY OL'BLUES 20
7 Phipps St., Gore Bay

Kathryn Antonio (owner) states that My OL'Blues designs, manufactures, wholesales and retails outerwear and accessories for all ages. Many of their designs have a unique Canadiana feel.

NEEDLE BOX 21
26 Water St. East, Little Current

Linda Burnett and her daughter Holly opened The Needle Box, a Fabric and Wool shop-Quilt shop, in 1981. Linda states that she has made traditional quilts for 39 years and then 10 years ago she began to do fibre art quilting as well.

LAMBAC
A Community Futures Development Corporation
Une Société d'aide au développement des collectivités

Manitoulin Fine Arts Association

Dylon Whyte